

The City of Grand Junction, Forestry Division is teaming up with the National Arbor Day Foundation for the 2010 Arbor Day National Poster Contest and they would like to invite all 5th grade students to participate by drawing a poster!

The 2010 poster theme is "Trees Are Terrific...and Energy Wise!" Join over 65,000 fifth grade teachers across America to increase your students' knowledge about the importance of trees and how they relate to the production and conservation of energy.

The following will be provided:

- 🍏 Free lesson plans which correlate with education standards (download your free materials at arborday.org/postercontest)
- 🍏 Each participating student will receive a seedling tree provided by the City of Grand Junction, Forestry Division
- 🍏 Additional prizes will be awarded to the School District 51 winner provided by the City of Grand Junction, Forestry Division
- 🍏 The Arbor Day Foundation will also be awarding prizes at State and National Levels.

On Thursday, April 15th City Forestry crews will visit each participating class to announce the winners , hand out prizes and celebrate Arbor Day!

In order to participate in this program you must sign up your class by February 1st!!!

Please call Jessica Norman at 254-3861 to sign up and for further information.
